COULD TALK...

Saigon Saigon Rooftop Bar, located on the hotel's top floor is one of the few remaining bars in our rapidly developing city with such a long and colorful history.

Long before sky bars, craft beer and social media became 'things', drinks flowed uninterrupted at Saigon Saigon Rooftop Bar from the very first moment the hotel opened way back in 1959.

Not even a war could prevent thirsty politicians, journalists and soldiers from risking a sneaky happy hour beer on the patio and balconies that overlook the city and along with one of its most famous and historical streets.

Caravelle Saigon

WHAT'S IN THE NAME...

The names of very few hotels evoke such fond, romantic images, and indeed such anticipation, as Caravelle.

Its breezy sound recalls its inspiration: the Iberian caravelas, or as the French called them, caravelles; fast, light 15th-century sailing ships that explored the world in search of foreign trade, adventure and new horizons.

And perhaps it's no coincidence that Air France, which held a stake in the original building, and had its offices there since its opening, had also recently begun operating a fancy new jet airliner of the same name.
